

Seminars to be held in Albania to promote youth entrepreneurship

OSCE

A series of seminars will be held this week throughout Albania to promote youth entrepreneurship in the country.

The idea of the project, which is entitled 'Promoting Youth Entrepreneurship', is to introduce basic elements of entrepreneurial thinking, encourage further education and training, self-motivation, stimulate entrepreneurial spirit, and develop respect for legal business practices, including proper registration of business and paying taxes.

This project will target particularly non-affiliated youths, who are interested in economic matters, especially in becoming economically active.

To this end, the OSCE Presence in Albania has sought a partnership agreement with the Southeast Europe Enterprise Development (SEED), which will assist the OSCE Presence in delivering the project.

The first seminar called 'On the Road to Your Success' will take place in Shkodra on Tuesday, 24 June. It will be followed by two seminars in Elbasan and Korca, on 25 and 26 June. The OSCE organizes the events in co-operation with youth non-governmental organizations in Shkodra and other districts, and with the Civil Society Development Centres (CSDCs) in Elbasan and Korca.

Media representatives are invited to attend the seminar at the Rozafa Hotel, Shkodra, on Tuesday, 24 June, at 10:00.
